- On 15 and 26 March 1954, numerous crates (sic) containing airplanes bound for Communist China were allegedly being loaded at the Vysocany Railroad Station in Prague.
- These aircraft, a total of about fifty, were manufactured by the Skoda, Avia and Letnani factories, and were allegedly fighters and transport planes <sup>1</sup>.
- Approximately 200 Czech technicians were allegedly on the train to handle the consignment of the aircraft to Chinese authorities.

Comment: As received. Presumably the Jan Sverma Plant of Motorlet, National Enterprise, (formerly the Walter Plant of the Skoda Works) in Prague-Jinonice, the J. Dimitrov Plant of Avia, National Enterprise, in Letnany (near Cakovice), and the Rudy Letov Plant of Let, National Enterprise, in Letnany are intended.
